- The step-by-step process of identifying lies and wounds and learning how to get rid of the garbage has blessed me. I am equipped to continue my journey and to help others.
- The Healing Journey Class has helped me to accept my past and move on.
- My life until this point has been a struggle to find love, acceptance and fulfillment. Instead of turning to God, I relied on myself. I became the ultimate people pleaser and sculpted my body down to minimal body fat. I ended up with very poor self-esteem, a terrible eating disorder and desolate isolation. Thanks to the Healing Journey class, my chains are now being broken as I, for the first time, feel unconditional love and acceptance from the only one who counts, God. God is healing my wounds, exposing the truth and allowing me to be the child he created me to be.
- The Healing Journey Class has helped me discover, forgive and heal my deep wounds.
- I loved the focus on the Word. I've learned so much, I can see how it's beneficial to take the class more than once. My eyes have been opened during this class and I am so grateful for the truth that I have learned here.
- I have benefited from the Healing Journey Class more than I can possibly express! First and foremost, I have entered into a relationship with Christ. I have also started reading the Bible on a regular basis. My family and I also attend church services regularly. My husband and I pray together with our son every night at bedtime. I now know there is hope for me. I know God has bestowed his grace on me and before I absolutely did not believe this! The people in my life have seen me grow and change over these months. I feel different! My beliefs are different!
- The Healing Journey Class has taught me the way to clean out the junk so I can be healed and an empty vessel to be filled with God's love.
- I feel more rested, peaceful, and joyful.
- I have experienced and seen God do amazing things in the Healing Journey Class. God used this class to take me to a place of wholeness in my healing journey. In the many years I was on that journey I had never come across anything that so ministered to me. Cyndy has hit the nail on the head to the steps that need to be taken for healing to occur.
- In the Healing Journey Class I have learned the truth of how much God loves me.

- I love the encouragement from our small groups.
- Twelve years ago I witnessed my first true love commit suicide. I also had a whole life of trash, such as being a child of divorce, sibling abandonment, molestation, etc. Two years ago I attended my first Healing Journey class. Today I am a free and healed woman. The class has given me the tools that God offers to us, to head into a life of healed wounds and pure joy. God's holy gift of healing has actually taken over my life!! It has been my privilege to attend this class (three times) and grow into the happy person God created me to be. The class has been a life changing experience for me and I would recommend this class to all women.
