The Healing Journey

Retreat

You did it! you're gonna make it thru the 29 week Healing Journey class.

Are you ready for the icing on the cake?

What women say

So many wounds healed thru the 29 weeks.
Sitting with God at the retreat ...erased some scars.

I surrendered.....Is this what peace feels like?

There's just something about pulling away from our everyday life that allows us to receive things from the Lord that we might not ordinarily receive. Cyndy Sherwood

The Healing Journey Retreat is open to any student who is currently taking, or has taken, the Online Healing Journey class. For the current student, it is the crowning glory in their healing process. The retreat gives numerous opportunities to revisit healing steps, to practice and solidify God's process of healing, and to get to those hard to reach areas of darkness.

For the alumni of Healing Journey, the retreat is an excellent opportunity for a tune-up. As long as we're on this earth, we continue to receive wounds. Alumni will find the retreat a great place to return to freedom and wholeness.

Even though we're online, we're women, and we'll get to know each other during meals and online chatting with each other.

A place to stay

Of course need
GREAT WI-FI

Start praying now about where you want to go to for the Retreat

Getting away to a peaceful place, that has

Place to Sit
& Pray

Quiet

No demands on your time or focus away from

you and God

This will be time with God, so..... ask Him and He will show you where you will find

Some Ideas:

Ask your Pastor or Prayer Leader where they go for a personal retreat

If you have kids, maybe your Mom/Sister/Friend can come to your place and watch your kids, and you can go to their place

Hotel / Bed N Breakfast: that is someplace quiet. A place you can walk around and feel at peace

If you know someone else attending the retreat, you could share a VRBO or B&B
