

Words for the Journey

Podcast of the Week: Jesus Loves the Bad Girl

Reminder: Every Wednesday we post podcasts related to Healing Journey, following the same order as the lessons. This is a great tool to share with your students, a tool that will reinforce the truths from the class. Print a podcast index for each student to keep.

2023 Leader Letter Week 3

To All Small Group Leaders of the Healing Journey Class:

I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus (Philippians 1:3-6 NIV).

When I read this passage, it struck me how similar the Healing Journey ministry is to that of the new church in Paul's day. New Healing Journey local ministries are popping up all the time in new places as we see steady growth. Bryan and I travel to visit your areas bringing instruction and encouragement—sort of like Paul and Barnabas did.

And just like Paul, I am very thankful for each of you and your personal sacrifice to serve Christ and his hurting people. I pray very regularly for all of you. Not only do you have the constant power of the Lord with you this year, but you have His Healing Light Ministries behind you, as well. You're never alone.

Paul's right—we are in a partnership. I hope you are encouraged that God has called you to be part of this life-changing ministry that is spreading the news and opportunity of healing to more churches, cities, and states. Pray the Lord will reach more people this year through Healing Journey.

...Relax in the Lord and enjoy the journey!

Tip of the week:

This is the week you begin processing your students on the Beliefs Worksheets. Remember what your job involves and what it does not involve. Your job is to receive it, not fix it! Now, if they don't know their false belief or a Scripture, your job IS to try to help them discover that. Once your group has gotten all 3 parts figured out, they're done and so are you! Congratulate them on a job well done and move on to the next person. Do not try to preach, teach, debate, convince, or defend God or his truth. The Word of God speaks for itself. If you are struggling with this—keep your duct tape close by to remind yourself to stop talking.

Blessings,

Cyndy Sherwood
