Happy New Year!

In our home, it is my job to remember birthdays, anniversaries, and loved ones at Christmas. Because we have such a large family, it can be overwhelming merely doing the minimum. Even staying on top of special days for grandkids keeps me quite busy. I simply want them to know Grandma loves them. Our human tendency is to try to do just enough to get by, to make sure we're covering the bases.

God doesn't approach it that way. His love is extravagant! He shows no restraint. Lavish love is ridiculous. It doesn't know when to stop. It goes beyond any reasonable standard or expectation. It's like a faucet that won't turn off.

And it comes from a heart filled with joy. God does it because he wants to! He is a doting Father who finds great pleasure in pouring out blessings and delights on his children—including you!

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! 1 John 3:1a

If you have received Jesus as your Savior, you're on the gift list! He sees you. He knows you by name. He wants to bless you. You are his. In God's design, parental love is the strongest earthly bond. That describes his love for you. Will you believe him? Will you receive it? Will you allow his
